DISCUSSION

- We would like to welcome Becky back and welcome Jen to the group
- Thanks to the efforts of SAC, the new Aquatic/Waterfront Activities policy was revised and will be effective in time for the trip to Camp Simpresca on June 23rd.
- Caitlin will meet with Michele on June 18th to review materials on bullying then do a presentation.
- Upcoming provincial election was discussed including who is representing each party locally and provincially along with how to vote and what to expect if you never have.
- Margaret will continue to make phone calls to other self-advocate groups over the summer in hopes of organizing a meeting via tele-conference.
- We discussed where activity choices are advertised; presently on a calendar, word of mouth or if a staff invites you. SAC suggested posters, emails, flyers and a large visual board. Margaret and Michele initiate a meeting with Sue Charlebois, a GLAD team member to share our ideas.
- As previously agreed, SAC will not meet during the summer
